DREDGER BEGINS WORK

VESSEL SUBJECT OF PRESENT
SUIT IN MARTINEZ RESUMES
ACTION ON LOCAL JOB

Resuming operations after the third long delay, the dredger Los Aroboles was manned by a full crew yesterday. The work will proceed at full capacity of pumping, according to the statement of those in charge, as the two weeks of idleness has made a rush imperative. The lifting of a wage claim from the dredge made it possible to resume the work.

A suit for $10,000 now pending in the Martinez courts against the dredge for alleged pumping of mud belonging to other parties will not affect the work of the dredger, according to claims made last night.

That extra effort will be made to rush the work to completion, as the delay the past few weeks was the third long delay in the past three months.

An attempt was made to restrain the dredge from pumping, but the difficulties were removed by the lifting of the labor claims yesterday.

POPULAR NURSE OPERATED UPON

Mrs. R. E. Redmond, a well known nurse of this city, was operated on yesterday at the Craven hospital for removal of adenoids and tonsils.

Dr. U. S. Abbott, assisted by Dr. Carpenter, performed the operation, and reported last night that the patient was resting easily and would probably be able to return to her home within a few days.

LIBEL SUIT IS FAILURE

The demurrer filed by attorneys for the San Francisco Examiner in the case of Mrs. Laura D. Snyder vs. the San Francisco Examiner, was upheld by Judge John Hunt. Mrs. Snyder several years ago resided here. Forty years ago she shot and killed her lover. The Examiner published articles which it was alleged were libelous and Mrs. Snyder brought suit for $50,000.

O. A. King, postmaster at Benicia, faces a federal Grand Jury indictment on the charge that he "solicited and induced F. W. Richardson of Sacramento" to purchase stamps of the value of $1425 in order "to increase the emoluments and compensation of his office." According to E. F. Jans, assistant United States attorney, King increased his salary from $1700 a year to $1900 by the extra stamp sales made to Richardson, the state printer.

The court last night awarded the sum of $15,000 to Jennie L. Haines in a suit to recover damages against the local street car company.

Claiming that her husband met his death as a result of an accident on the street cars in Richmond more than a year ago, Mrs. Haines brought action against the car company.

The matter has been in the Martinez courts before Judge Barber for the past several days.

The case went to the jury at 1:30 yesterday afternoon, and a verdict awarding the damages was rendered at 9:30 o'clock last night.

PROTEST OIL

Fatal Accident Occurs At Loading House of the Cap Work

Blown to atoms by the terrific explosion of a quantity of dynamite, two Hindus yesterday afternoon, shortly after 12:30 o'clock, suffered a horrible death. The dead men are Taza Kahn, aged 35 years, and F. Stedman, aged 50 years. Both are natives of Afghanistan. The loading house, in which the two men were working by themselves, is isolated from the main section of the company's plant. The building was completely demolished. The two men were horribly mangled, the head of one of the victims being torn from his body. While the face of the other was so badly as to be unrecognizable. Portions of the victims' remains were scattered over a large area of ground.

It is not known how the accident occurred.

Both men were experienced workers," said Superintendent Campbell last night, "and I have no idea how the accident happened."

It is believed that one of the men dropped a portion of the explosive, which exploded.

A number of girls working the main section of the building were unaware of the seriousness of the explosion until several hours afterwards.

An inquest will be held in a few days.

CONFERENCE OF
CONTINUES

At the conference session of the Methodist church of Northern California, continued in Oakland yesterday, the success of the silver anniversary meeting of the Methodist Women's Home Missionary Society of California is the subject of admiration on all sides. The society was responsible for one of the largest gatherings of women ever held in Oakland, when 1500 gathered at the First Methodist church Thursday afternoon at the call of Mrs. M. C. Smith.

An interesting program had been arranged and among the speakers were Mrs. William A. Goodman, Mrs. Marie Brehm, Dr. Ward Platt, Miss Rena Walter and Bishop Francis J. McConnell. Japanese and Chinese girls featured in sacred songs, and Miss Alma Herman rendered a solo. Dean L. J. Birney of the Boston University School of Theology addressed the delegates. At the anniversary meeting of the Board of Foreign Missions in the evening an address was made by Bishop John W. Robinson of Bombay, India.

TOMORROW BY MEMBERS OF CALVARY CHURCH

Rally Day will be celebrated at the Calvary Baptist church Sunday with a special program and a joint service of the Sunday school and morning preaching service. The meeting will be an annual occasion at which time attempts will be made to secure the attendance of every member.

Several recitations, songs and other features have been arranged for; one of the prettiest of which is the special exercises by the Camp Fire Girls, entitled "Building the Cross." Other good features are being arranged for by the Sunday school superintendent, L. W. Trivette, and his corps of teachers.

The joint service of the Sunday school and morning church will begin at 10 instead of at 9:45, as is the case of the Sunday school ordinarily.

ACTION TAKEN ON LOCAL LOTS

Action against Mabel Smith for the recovery of several Richmond lots was begun in the Superior Court at Martinez yesterday by Zeb Knott. Attorneys De Lap and Horner are representing Knott, while Attorney H. J. Willgrube is representing the defendant.

BRIDGE ACROSS SLOUGH CERTAIN

The long waited permit from the War Department for permission to build a drawbridge across the Pacheco slough, which came yesterday, removed the last obstacle in the way of building the Martinez-Bay Point direct road.

The new road will parallel the bay shore and the Southern Pacific tracks from Martinez to Bay Point.

CALLED AWAY BY ILLNESS OF MOTHER

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morgan and son will leave early this morning for Monterey, where the mother of the former is lying critically ill. Morgan, who is day foreman of the Daily News, received word last night from Monterey that his mother's condition was critical.

Hull Endorsed
At a Secret Meeting

Action at Martinez yesterday results in Petition's followers to protest

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the County Democratic Central Committee, in a session which has given rise to a storm of protest, met and endorsed the candidacy of Frank Hull for postmaster of Richmond.

War clouds have already gathered, and what promises to be the most bitter fight in Democratic county history is prophesied.

Claiming that "steam roller" methods were used, and declaring that petitions and a mass meeting were scheduled for the immediate future, the faction which hoped to secure for W. F. Pettillon the nomination held a conference last night.

The meeting was said to have been called by E. J. Randall and non-members of the committee. The fact that a meeting was to be held was not learned by the supporters of Pettillon until noon yesterday, when notices were received by Daniel Barton and M. Moore.

It was said last night that proxies were obtained, but that those who gave them claimed to have been in ignorance of the purpose of the meeting, and of the use that would be made of their votes.

Pettillon and his supporters contend that the conduct of the meeting, and the manner in which it was held and called, would find disfavor in the eyes of the postmaster general, and of the Democratic public generally, and for that reason petitions in triplicate are to be circulated throughout the town to obtain the sentiment of local citizens. The petitions, it is said, will oppose the candidacy of Hull on the grounds of moral character. The petitions planned will also oppose him because of alleged unfitness for the office.

A mass meeting is to be called, which the county Democrats will be requested to attend. Able speakers will be present, and the resolutions repudiating the action of the central committee in making the endorsement will be offered.

Invited to the place to oppose Hull is the sending of petitions signed by representative Richmonders to the postmaster general, to U. S. Commissioner Caminetti and to the State Democratic Committee.

James D. Phelan will be asked to disapprove of the endorsement of Hull and of the methods used by the central committee.

"The methods may be successful locally," said Pettillon last night, "but I am positive that the proceedings of yesterday will find disfavor in the eyes of the federal officers, and by all good Democrats. We shall oppose Hull as not a true Democrat. We will make public that he has not always been anxious to be known as a Democrat, and will relate his history with reference to certain important Democratic measures."

THE RESURRECTION OF A TRADE BOOM.

American banks never had a higher duty to perform than now confronts them. If the 24,000 big and little state and national banks will without hesitation subscribe to the $150,000,000 gold fund, they will instantly lift the whole national money situation upon a safer and more rational plane.

To let the entire world know that this country stands to liquidate the last dollar of its debt in gold is now the most pressing of all obligations. The banks can supply the machinery by which this may be done so swiftly that every shred of doubt about America's ability and willingness to pay will instantly vanish.

American exporters are now handicapped by their inability to receive pay for their wares. Europe will not move one step except the step which necessities of war may compel it to take, to help our foreign commerce unless we first make it certain that past debts will be wiped out. Hence sound business as well as good morals impels the country to prepare to pay foreign creditors.

The publication of America's intention to do this was favorably felt in London banking circles. Rates of interest there instantly improved. But if the mere suggestion of shipping $25,000,000 gold to the Bank of England's Ottawa branch so promptly tended to re-establish normal conditions, what would the actual deposit of that fund accomplish?

All business in the United States is directly concerned in this issue. It does not alone concern bankers who have the gold or exporters who are desirous to ship cargoes to Europe. It involves the industrial affairs of the whole country.

The comptroller of the currency and the State Banking Commissioners can very easily locate the supply of gold. There is a vast amount, no doubt, of what may be called dead reserves, that is, reserves untouched for years. These can now be made to perform a useful work.

If the United States is to profit commercially as a sequel to the war, or if it is even to continue to hold what it has had in the past, the first thing to be done is to clear up the international money situation. That can best be done by proving our willingness to pay what we owe.

Guaranteeing to pay our obligations in gold, if gold be demanded, is the essential step toward the resurrection of a trade boom.

MEDIATION RELATED TO EQUITY.

Beneath the seeming partisanship of President Wilson in his handling of the Mexican civil war problem has been essential loyalty to principles of international good will and rectitude, which he has labored to induce all the Mexican factions to recognize as constituting the only basis for domestic peace and escape from military interference from without. In season and out he has used the actual and potential power of the United States, not for conquest, but for composing fratricidal strife; and he still is preaching this truth to officials of the new Constitutional regime as they enter on what he hopes will be a constructive era of Mexican history. The same sort of patience, good will and fair play is struck in his solemn appeal to his countrymen as to their conduct during a war which, beginning in Europe, is now intercontinental in its scope. Beyond his natural desire as an executive to reduce to a minimum all possible chances of friction with belligerent nations is his deeper longing as a statesman to be free to cast all his personal influence and all the nation's moral weight in favor of mediation and peace when the right time comes.

Not as a partisan of any nation or group of nations, we feel sure, but as a friend of all, must the United States play its role. Consequently not only must the government acts be neutral, but also the people's words and deeds; and obviously it is to induce a realization of how important this popular task is, and also how difficult under present conditions of multiracial makeup, that the President has spoken like a peacemaker-seer. He deplores the beginnings of strife arising from sympathies that are natural and inevitable, but none the less antagonistic to highest interests of the United States and to the service of the world which it is facing as a solemn duty. He calls for a curb on thoughts and on sentiments that may lead to words and deeds hostile to the neutrality to which the nation is pledged.

The sobering, composing influence of this unusual exhortation will surely be wholesome. It can hardly fail to moderate criticism, diminish credulity, weaken passion, and force some citizens to redetermine their supreme allegiance as patriots. Incidentally it will call attention to some of those complications in national policy which are occasioned by the presence of a heterogeneous population.

THE STUPENDOUS COST MAY SPEEDILY END THE WAR.

Statisticians figure that the war is costing the participants $50,000,000 a day. That is merely the money that must go for the upkeep of armies in the field. It does not take into account the ruinous paralysis of industry, the stagnation of trade, the suspension of the manifold activities whereby the plain average of humanity struggles to earn its living.

The war cannot go on indefinitely for the simple reason that it is so inconceivably voracious a consumer not only of the lives of men, but of the fruits of the earth. It makes a cleaner sweep than a plague of locusts. Russia alone is paying more than $200,000,000 interest per annum on a national debt which was largely the product of former wars. In such circumstances prohibitive cost must call a halt when diplomacy stands aghast and impotent.

THE WHALING INDUSTRY.

The whaling industry is commonly supposed to be a thing of the past. Yet it is estimated that $100,000,000 is invested in that business today, and one whaling company recently bought out a rival at a price of $1,000,000.

Such a business would seem to be rather lively for a back number. A new scheme has been brought up several times of late which may add still more to the importance and profits of whaling. This is the plan to can whale meat and put it on the market as a rival to other forms of canned meats.

No doubt this would add considerably to the world's food supply, and under the right handling the quality might not be bad. Japan eats a great deal of whale meat already, and Dr. Grenfell of Labrador considers it very good food. But no one yet has explained how the huge carcass can be handled in sanitary fashion with the limited equipment possible on a whaling ship. Until this miracle is achieved it is not likely that whale meat will rival beef and pork in any country peopled by white men.

SANTA FE CASHIER SUICIDE

FEARING INSANITY, POPULAR RAILROAD EMPLOYE SHOTS AND KILLS HIMSELF

Richmond friends of Allen M. Ripley Jr., cashier of the Oakland Santa Fe station at Fortieth street and San Pablo avenue, were horrified yesterday to learn that he had committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth with a revolver. The shooting occurred at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the couple's apartments on Thirty-eighth street, Oakland. Fear that he was threatened with insanity is given as the motive for the deed.

Ripley had been married for about four months. He left a farewell note to his child bride, which read as follows:

"My dearest Sue: I don't want to do this, sweetheart, but I am losing my mind and rather than be a burden to you I'm going to do it. May God bless you, dearest, is my last wish. Yours forever, AL."

The widow is less than 20 years of age and is prostrated over the affair. Ripley was well known here, especially in railroad circles.

RICHMONDERS AT BERKELEY

A delegation of Richmond churchwomen were present at the semi-annual meeting of the Missionary Society of the Oakland Presbyterian church at St. John's church, Berkeley, yesterday. Pritchard, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Surles, Mrs. S. S. Ripley and Mrs. J. A. Long.

A Message From President Wilson

In a Letter to John T. Waldorf of San Francisco, he Urges the Voters of California to Elect James D. Phelan United States Senator.

PRESIDENT WILSON

JAMES D. PHELAN

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

September 11, 1914.

My dear Mr. Waldorf:

I was most gratified to hear of the nomination of former Mayor James D. Phelan for United States Senator. He has been in close touch with the administration in Washington, and has heartily supported the policies which have been inaugurated for the benefit of the people,—policies which, I am pleased to be informed, have met with very general approval.

The work has been well begun, and it is manifestly important for its successful continuance and prosecution that the administration should not be refused support in the Senate and House at the forthcoming election.

Therefore, I appeal not only to Democrats, but to all independent citizens to rally to the support of the men who have expressed a willingness to sustain the administration and carry on the work designed for the benefit of all. It is not so much mere party success that concerns the average citizen as sound and efficient government, and a party can best deserve credit by giving the best service to the country.

Sincerely yours,

Woodrow Wilson

James D. Phelan—

Three times Mayor of San Francisco. Prevented renewal of franchises of old Geary street railway, San Francisco, thus making present successful municipal line possible.

Commissioner for Hetch Hetchy legislation before Congress to secure a permanent water supply for the cities around San Francisco Bay.

Head of the San Francisco Relief Committee in the disaster of 1906.

LABOR NEWS

"No unity there is strength, united we stand divided we fall."

M. M. & E. HIRELINGS ARE TAKEN; WERE SPYING ON UNION LABOR MEETINGS

Masquerading as trade unionists, two men have been caught furnishing information to the Merchants, Manufacturers and Employers' Association of Stockton, for which services, it is said, they were paid $30 per week by the M. M. & E.

According to evidence collected by the unions' defense committee, these men reported daily to the Merchants, Manufacturers and Employers' Association all the news they were able to gather from their connection with the labor movement.

One of these men was an officer of the Plumbers' Union of Stockton, and has been under suspicion for some time. The other man was a member of the Newspaper Solicitors' Union of San Francisco, according to report, and is now openly fighting the labor unions of Stockton. Both men have been repudiated by the labor movement.

TEAMSTERS APPOINT ONE DELEGATE TO CONVENTION OF FEDERATION IN OCTOBER

Business Agent Heckman was appointed delegate to the convention of the State Federation of Labor at Stockton on October 5, at a meeting of the Teamsters in the Labor Temple last night. The meeting was well attended and reports from various sources showed that organization was in the best of condition.

J. W. Word was initiated into the organization last night, while Edward Royce was admitted by card.

The Sperry flour situation was discussed at last night's meeting and all members were urged to keep up their fight on this product, which is unfair to union labor. Indications point to a decided wavering on the part of the Sperry interests.

ADS ARE POPULAR READING.

A newspaper's information is so varied it contains news to suit everyone. Some years ago a person who read the ads in a newspaper or magazine was considered odd, and it is true the ads were crude, the articles advertised often being out of season or of a style and texture entirely out of fashion. But now it is different. Advertising furnishes the most interesting reading matter in the newspaper. It is instructive, teaching the public how to reduce the cost of living and at the same time get the best standard goods. If you don't already read ads—get the habit—it's a liberal education.

eric ranch in San Pablo, which is at present occupied by Homer G. Stid-ham. There the evening was spent in cards, games and a general social time.

SECRET OF MARTINEZ WIN OVER CONCORD SUNDAY IS EXPLAINED; COUNTY SEAT BOYS TACKLED CRIPPLES

Martinez scribes have worked themselves into a frenzy over the defeat of the Concord club by the Martinez team. An article from the Concord Transcript, which may or may not be of interest to local fandom, but which we are going to inflict whether or not, is as follows:

The Concord ball team goes to Martinez Sunday, where the next game of the series will be played.

Concord was defeated for the first time by Martinez Sunday by the score of 17 to 10.

They were beaten but not discredited. When Jimmy Byrnes, the peppery captain of the locals, was hit by a pitched ball in the third inning, which forced his retirement from the game, the local players were disheartened. This was a vital blow for Concord, but a lucky one for Martinez, for when Byrnes left the field the sympathy which the Concord players alone showed took their nerve away. Consequently they could not do themselves justice. With Byrnes' absence from the game that great baseball machine which battled Richmond to a standstill, humbled Antioch and proved too much for Martinez, was but a broken fragment of a once dashing team.

The dash and fire which the locals showed up to this unfortunate accident took Martinez clear off their feet.

Another blow to the team was the absence of Hennig, who was indisposed. Nevertheless, Block was sufficient to beat Martinez, but Block, a youngster, had no one who could keep him steady.

Babe Danzig's reign on the mound held the visitors in check, they being unable to hit the elongated first sacker safely. The feature of the game was the all round playing of P. Crenna. The local shortstop played his position in form, which would do credit to a major leaguer, besides stealing four bases. Also out of five trips to the plate he gathered five hits, two doubles and three singles, a pretty good day's work for a busher.

The local fans and baseball patrons request that Wilcox control his balls with good men at bat, which will exonerate him from all suspicion.

Byrnes is still confined to his bed at the Concord Inn, but Dr. Johnson, who is attending him, reports his condition as very favorable.

SOME CARNIVAL REMARKS IEMA SAMHANDWICH, THE FAMOUS SPORT AUTHORITY

"Some carnival." So did Iema Samhandwich, the famous sporting authority and staff correspondent of the Daily News, remark as he rolled into the office late last night following an evening spent at the carnival of the Knights of Pythias at the First street grounds.

"Gee whiz, fellahs," he continued, "you should have been there to pipe off the Janes. By heck, I always thought that Petaluma had a pretty swell layout of chickens, but believe me, Evangeline, that bunch present at last night's affair sure had any outfit I've ever lamped backed clear off this old planet of ours. And friends, you should have seen the Queen. Queen Ann is her official cognomen and take it from me, she is sure some queen."

Here one of the hired help interrupted Iema. "Say," said this individual, "lay off on that chicken talk. Tell us what's going on or dry up."

Iema was slightly perturbed by the interruption. But he was game. "As I was saying before this boob put in his horn," continued our hero, "there sure was a classy chicken exhibition last night, and believe me, kid, I copped one. That's why I don't figure to eat anything this week unless certain ginks in this village come through with back dues."

Iema was high in his praise of the manner in which the carnival was conducted and declared that it was one of the jolliest affairs he had ever got tangled up with.

(Shooting's too good.)

OUTLAWS AND WINEHAVEN TO TANGLE TOMORROW P. M.

The Winehaven club will mix it with the Outlaws hired by Frank Cheek tomorrow afternoon at the latter's grounds at Tenth and Lucas. Pinkerton will open on the mound for the wine city hirelings, while Eddie Ming will officiate for the Outlaws. Moitosa and Moss will be the rival catchers. Both clubs have been dishing up a nice article of the national pastime and a real live contest should develop.

NOTICE.

To Whom It May Concern: My wife, Mrs. Grossi Sannazzari, having left my bed and board without any good cause, on my part and against my will, therefore I will not be responsible for any debts she may contract from this date on. Sept. 23, 1914.

ELK'S LINEUP GETS A BIG SHAKEUP; CHANGES MANY

Midget Childs will not be with the Elks in their match with the St. Mary's College team here tomorrow. Childs will play with the collegians. In his place Gus Smith, formerly of the Walla Walla club of the northwest, will reign. The switch of Childs to the college nine was made to give the visitors a stronger infield and to also give the Midget a chance to have his "rah rah" friends give him a little of yell stuff. There is going to be one other important switch in the Elk lineup Sunday. Hyatt will be brought in from center field and placed at second. Bankhead, who has been playing at that position, will probably be removed to center, although Frank Pingree is making a strong bid for the job. Bankhead has been putting up a pretty fair fielding game, but his hitting—Good Night.

However, the atmosphere in the outfield might help out his constitution. If it doesn't, it looks like the management will be forced to tie the can.

SPORT GOSSIP

JIMMY ROHAN wants a return match for his protege, Azevedo, against Frankie Burns. Jimmy is shouting money as if he controlled the mint.

WE SEE that Old Kink Football is about to mount the sport throne. Note the political smile on the undertakers and doctors.

THE FIRST TEAM of U. C. will tackle the Olympic club tomorrow afternoon, while a curtain raiser between the "babes" and the Palo Alto high will open festivities.

THERE IS a possibility that a Clabby-Chip battle may be the next battle in Vernon.

TEN three-round bouts will be the attraction at Piedmont pavilion, Oakland, Tuesday evening.

THE GIANTS don't look as formidable for first place as they did several weeks ago.

E. W. Swanbrought, a veteran auto racer, was killed in a race at Denver late yesterday. Swanbrought's machine plunged through a fence and a timber struck the driver on the head, killing him.

OFFICER SUMMON A COP; SANTA FES AND THE BARACAS AT IT AGAIN

The Baracas and Santa Fe baseball teams will again mix for the first time in several months, on the First street lot, at 2:30 this afternoon. The Santa Fe's have been playing games regularly for weeks past, and the Baracas have spent the last week in hard practice, so that today's contest should be well played.

The Baracas will line up behind the famous Garrard battery somewhat as follows: Ed Hill, 1b; Howe, 2b; Axelson, ss; V. Hill, 3b; E. Bloomquist, cf; Whipple, rf; Heath, lf; Jack Lee, substitute.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES BY SCOOP

Bright and early this morning the members of the football team will leave the high school on their way to Pleasanton, where they will this afternoon meet the Livermore high team. But the members of the team and Principal B. X. Tucker will make the trip by train.

The large delegation of rooters that it was planned to take along today will not be taken on account of the fact that automobiles to convey the crowd would be too expensive. This big showing will be reserved until spring at the event of the C. A. C. A. league track meet, when a record delegation of local boosters will be sent down to root for the local school's track and field heroes.

Today is the day which the athletically interested people of the school have been anticipating for several years past: the entrance of Richmond high school into the Alameda County league, which is completed by the playing of today's game. It was only after three years of effort that the local school was permitted to enter the Central Alameda County league, and the showing the local school makes today means much for Richmond's rating by the other league members—Hayward, Centerville and Livermore.

Hayward today plays the other opening game of the league season with Centerville at Haywards.

The local team is in very good shape at the present time and is confident of being able to return home with the "am wat am" VICTORY. Though Coaches Kelly and Maddox have not been on the job lately, the team has continued its practice and has developed considerable new plays and the much desired team work.

As the Alameda county fair is now in progress at Pleasanton, the game will be witnessed by several hundred people in attendance at the fair.

The team representing R. U. H. S. at the fair today will probably be lined up as follows: Front rankers, Barr, Lewis, M. Walters; wing forward, Maxwell; half back, Sharp; first five, Cameron; second five, Stewart; center three, Capt. Brown; left wing, Peres; right wing, Parker; full back, Boquet, and Angell, Lang and Shubat.

Clifford Tucker, a member of the class of '18, who has been a member of the football team, yesterday quit school, as he will leave early in the week for Grass Valley, where his father, H. H. Tucker, will settle with his family.

Walter Hoffman, '15, and Clarence Cain, '17, left yesterday at 1:48 p. m. for Sacramento, where they will attend a three days' convention of the California Interscholastic Federation, September 26, 27 and 28. The two youths are deeply interested in track athletics, and hope to gain some knowledge of records made in different events, by amateur athletes over the state. They plan to return Monday morning.

Next Friday evening the marvelously filmed moving picture reproduction of John Bunyan's famous allegorical, "Pilgrim's Progress," will be given under the auspices of the school in the auditorium of the Lincoln school. This decision was reached at a student body meeting yesterday morning.

The film is produced by the Ambrosia company of Italy. Tickets have already been placed on sale, and the students will work hard that the money may be secured for the student body activities.

CANDIDATE IS VISITOR

W. S. Kingsbury, candidate to succeed himself as state surveyor general, accompanied by Arthur J. Burton, arrived in town last evening in his campaign of Contra Costa county by automobile. Kingsbury felt well pleased with the results of his campaign in the county so far and believes his prospects are good here for the November election.

Kingsbury is making his campaign on his record. He framed laws which it is said prevented some three or four men from manipulating the state school lands for their private gain. By a recent decision of the Court of Appeals he succeeded in saving some 270,000 acres of school lands from passing into the hands of a manipulator who wished to purchase the land at the old price of $1.25 per acre. The estimated price of this land, based on previous sales, under the law framed by Kingsbury, is $10.50 per acre.

Kingsbury is also asking for the votes of the people on the ground that he is the only surveyor or civil engineer endorsed by any of the major parties for the office of surveyor general.

Kingsbury received the endorsement of the Union Labor party during his first campaign and expects to receive the same endorsement during this campaign.
